

D. Murray Carley
Athletic Training Equipment, Facility Improvement, and Treatment Modalities
Grant Application for Seneca County Schools

Murray was a physical therapist who provided treatment to many local athletes throughout his years as a PT. He was a fun loving competitor who was passionate about athletes and recovering patients. He was a positive individual who motivated those around him and was lifted by those he assisted.

This grant is for the benefit of student athletic training through the provision of equipment, facilities improvements including capital improvements, and treatment modalities both diagnostic and therapeutic. Examples: athletic training room improvements, plyo boxes, strength bands, rehab exercise equipment, treatment tables, etc.

This grant can be awarded to the following schools in Seneca County: Tiffin Columbian, Calvert Catholic Schools, Mohawk, Hopewell- Loudon, Fostoria, New Riegel, Old Fort, or Seneca East.

Grants in the amount of $1000 will be awarded annually. Seneca County Schools Athletic Directors can apply for the grant on behalf of their school by March 31st by completing the grant application. Checks will be mailed directly to the school and may only be used for items approved through the grant.

Submit your completed application to Tiffin Community Foundation by March 31.

Applications may be submitted by mail to TCF at 31 S Washington Street, Tiffin, OH 44883 or by e-mail to info@tiffinfoundation.org
